Bulkeley High School

Bulkeley High School Class Of 2004

Life is a journey. How do we get to where we want to be? Think back. We took those first tentative steps, wobbling from the coffee table to the open arms of a parent. We fell many times while learning to walk, but we didn't care, because we knew that learning to walk would give us new freedom to go after all those things we wanted to explore! We should never forget those early days, when we tried without fear of falling. We pressed on until we could do what we wanted to do. That is how we will get to where we want to be in the future. We will press on, and learn new skills that will make our lives even better...even if it may sometimes be frightening. Life is learning to crawl, then walk, and driving on....until you can fly!

Our Principal

In our four years at Bulkeley High School, we have seen many changes, some physical, some not. Many of those changes have made our school a better place to learn and grow. We now have more computers and computer labs than ever, and they actually work now! We can access the Internet, which gives us an unbelievable wealth of knowledge, and helps us to see places in the world where we have never traveled in person. We have seen our school inspected for accreditation (we are accredited!) and we have seen our school become a "Red Carpet" school. The school is cleaner, the lighting is brighter, and things are looking nicer. There are more new young teachers eager to work with us, and the seasoned veteran teachers are excited about working with us too. The teachers are always coming up with new ways to help us become better students. All of these improvements, and more (lots of 'behind-the-scenes' stuff we probably don't know of) have been brought about by our Principal. The Class of 2004 wants to thank you for your dedication to us, and all you have done for us!

Ms. Evelyn Irizarry

To the graduating class of 2004: The moment you have been waiting for is finally here. In spite of the obstacles, you have succeeded. Be proud of your accomplishments. Never stop pursuing your dreams. Be relentless, be resilient, be consistent, be life-long learners. You are deserving of the honors and praises you are about to receive. Some of you will go on to institutions of higher learning, while others will enter the military or the job market. Whatever you choose to do, be dedicated and committed, and do not rest until you achieve your goals. Bulkeley High School has prepared you well. Thank you for the honor and the privilege of having been your Principal for the past three years. I wish you the best and rest assured that you will always be a member of the Bulkeley High School family.

Evelyn Irizarry, Principal

Mr. Tony DiPietro

Go to your VP ...

We have all heard that said in our classroom at least once, and if it was said to somebody else, we laughed. If it was said to us, we didn't! A trip to your VP wasn't always a bad thing. They have helped many of us stay in school, guided us through troubled times, and good times, and helped us graduate. Some of us never met our VP, and some of us were there regularly! We all appreciate their help, guidance and support. Thanks from the class of '04! We're out!

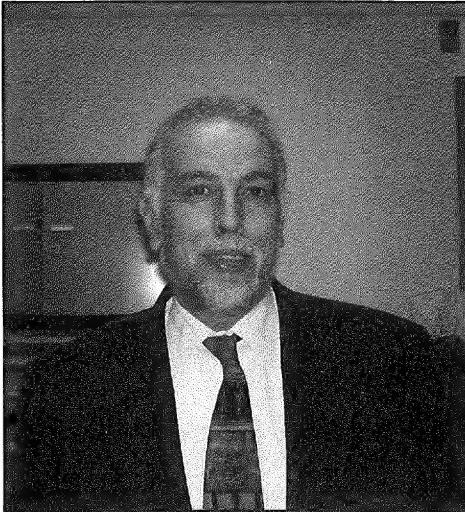

(Can we come back to visit??!)

Mr. DiPietro, the serious VP with a sense of humor. He knows when it is time for business (and then he means business!) and when it is time to brighten up a situation. You would rather meet him in the hall than in the office!

Ms. Evelyn Marrero

Mr. Rafael Lopez

Mr. Lopez, a tornado constantly on the move, handling many of those behind the scenes details that kept us working (thanks for all those testing days you organized!) We will try to work as hard as you do when we get out there...Promise!

2004!!

Ms. Marrero, we didn't have four years to get to know you, so we couldn't dish on you yet. A quiet style, always seems to be there and visible and available to us. We didn't know what we could get away with.... so we didn't try! That's our gift from the class of '04!

Ms. Gayle Allen-Greene

Ms. Greene, the VP of few words (well, more this year), but all of them dedicated to making us better students, athletes, and members of society! Just hope you are talking to Ms. Greene about the game, and not your attendance!

Mr. M. Santiago

Mr. Santiago, "Mr. energy!" Always moving, always keeping us moving (get to class!) Can we tap some of your energy to get us going? We don't know how you do it, but we hope we learn....soon, because we are going to need it in the real world!

THANK YOU COACH MARTIN

Having coached Football at Bulkeley for 32 years, and two years at Lumen Christi High School in Jackson, Michigan, retiring from this sport will leave a huge void in my life. Organized football has been a part of the Martin family since 1961.

Presently, I am enjoying the free time, but I know deep in my heart that come mid-August when hell week begins, I'll be going through withdrawals.

I will miss the smell of the dew on the grass, fresh cut on the practice fields, the enthusiasm of the kids coming into the locker room, that first day preparing them for the first day of contact, the first scrimmage and the first game. Bulkeley High School has been an integral part of my life. Football breeds a camaraderie that no other sport can claim, a bond that is everlasting.

The wins and losses, the tears and laughs, the impact play, the bonehead mistakes, the maturation process. To foster trust within your coaches and teammates, to rise and meet challenges...I will miss all of the above, as that is what makes coaching football so special, especially here at Bulkeley, where it will remain number one in my heart. For all those athletes who have come under my tutelage, I thank you for being a special part of my life. Thank you, Coach Martin

We would all like to say many thanks for being a big inspiration to us. Your dedication made a big change in our lives. You will forever be a bulldog in our hearts. We will always remember the good and bad games & times we have had in the past years of you being our Coach!

A BULLDOG IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER

The Yearbook Staff

Another batch of battered and weary students has made it through the "yearbook survival course." Like the Navy SEALs, many sign up for boot camp, but only a few survive! Those deadlines were like a silent enemy, sneaking up quietly to bite the staff when they weren't ready. If it weren't for some serious last minute effort at the end from the remaining few, there wouldn't be a yearbook!

Lizzette Torres:

Great sports layout designs, big hours.

Lizzette didn't let anything affect her determination. She was a 'high hours' performer doing everything from book organization to layout design to content selection.

Jessica Fernandez:

PhotoShop couldn't beat her.

Jess used her art background and PhotoShop skills to create many of the color layouts, more than once!

The true survivors of the 2004 yearbook project. Each had their own style, each worked in their own way. Some typed, some created layouts, some took and retook many photographs for the book. Some did work on all of these tasks. Here are the people who stepped up to the plate, and made you a yearbook.

Michelle Borodec:

Truly appreciates a completed page.

Michelle put in a lot of layout design and keyboard work, and provided a lift to the team with her up-beat attitude. Out of the box to Stockholm!

Luis Claudio:

Art; Digital Cam; PhotoShop; Darkroom &

Luis became a key contributor with his excellent digital photography, his Photoshop skills, and the high number of hours he put into the book. If you see a picture with unique style or perspective, it was probably his work.

Daviana Rojas:
If it's spelled right, it was Davi.

Davi did hours of data entry into the book, and fixed all those typos. If you find a typo, she didn't do it!

Nadia Miller:
Cropping, sports layouts.

Nadia did picture selection and cropping, and layout design. A sharp eye for detail that really helped.

Lutvija Hodzic:
Dedications, style consultant!

Lutvija did a lot of work creating the dedications and superlatives pages, and brought some European style to the yearbook!

Mr. H. Kolding:
Motivational speaker, key-holder.

"Mr." survived (just) the pressures of a late book, gassed up his motorcycle and took off for the summer.

Jessica Rosario:
Picture cropping, backup.

Jessie did picture cropping, and worked as backup with other staff members. Interesting music selections too!

Analisa Mejia:
Sports layout design.

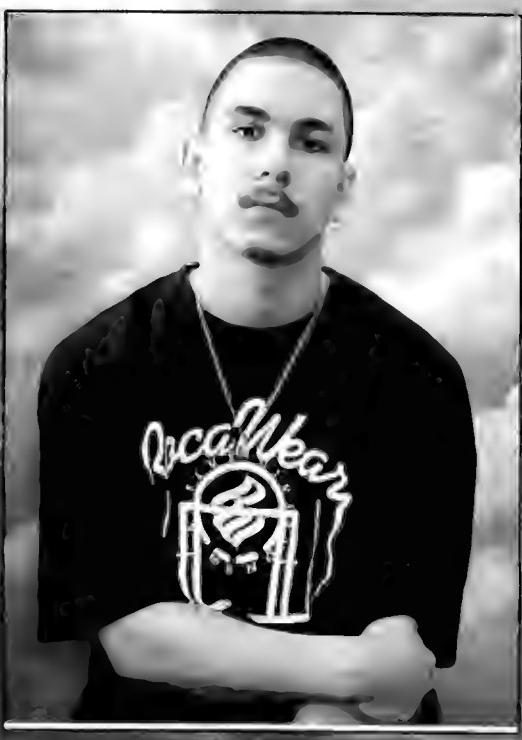

Ana did sports layouts, and came up with lots of good fund raising ideas (will you handle my retirement fund for me when you graduate college?)

What is a "good class?" Is it one where everyone does "A" work, is quiet, and always behaves? Is it one where students "get it" right away, with little teacher help required? I'll give a few examples (although there are many) of what makes a class good for me: A student with no photography experience comes into my class, and in a few days shows a real understanding of how light, camera and film interact. In a few days he achieves a level of ability that takes most students weeks. Another takes a camera home, and comes back with a shot that is outstanding. It is the opening page photo of this book. If I could create one photo a year like that.... Another tackled the darkroom without fear of failing, and learned to develop film and make prints of excellent quality. He was sought out by many of his classmates for help, and I thank him for that. Another discussed the experiences of women in our society, and addressed the many issues they face. She prompted more discussion and reflection among her classmates. She didn't just talk, she put in many hours with organizations that work to improve issues she felt strongly about. She demonstrated that being proactive gives us power to change the world. I think back on two friends who discovered Photoshop, and worked hard each day to outdo each other in their work. They learned more about Photoshop in a few weeks than most do in a year. I thank them for those seriously hilarious photos they created. I'll always smile when I think of their work! I thank the students that faced difficult times without complaining, and those that made the difficult transition to a new land. They helped me realize that the little things that bother us are really just little things. They taught me that our outlook on life determines how we face it, deal with it, and survive it during the tough times.

As we looked at hundreds of photographs of Bulkeley students while we worked on the yearbook, I was struck by one common quality. It was the smiles. Almost all of the pictures show smiling students! Life is not all smiles though, and there are pictures of students who aren't smiling. That is a good thing. Those students less prone to smile made a smile from them that much more precious. Some show looks of deep reflection, of burden, of concern..... I can only guess upon what their faces reflect. Perhaps wondering where they will be in three months, six months, twenty years from now. Perhaps wondering how they will fare in this complex world we adults have left them, wondering if and how they can change it. I know they can rise to the task. I know they have crested one of the most difficult hills in life. If they have made it this far, they have what it takes to go the distance. All it takes is the determination to learn, without fear of failing. Listen to that inner voice that tells you to keep going forward, the voice that tells you to make the decisions and take the actions that benefit you and society. You know that voice! It is the one that told you to do your homework instead of watching Survivor, to finish that job you didn't want to do. It's never too late to start listening to that voice, but today is the best time to start. So, did I have any 'good' classes this year? Let me say this: Life is good!

TEENAGERS ARE AMAZING
I WISH THE WORLD WOULD SEE,
JUST HOW BEAUTIFUL WE ARE,
HOW COMPASSIONATE WE CAN BE

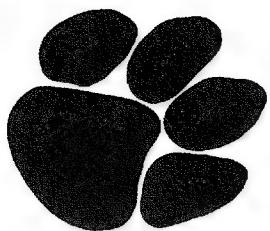

I WISH THEY COULD TAKE BACK,
ALL THE THINGS THEY'VE SAID,
AND SEE HOW MUCH WE SHINE,
BE POSITIVE INSTEAD

REMARK ON OUR RADIANT SMILES,
AND THE DIFFERENCES WE MAKE,
ALL OF THE PEOPLE OUR LIVES TOUCH,
ALL OF THE CHANCES THAT WE TAKE

NOTICE HOW WE CHANGE,
EACH AND EVERYDAY,
WANTING TO LEAVE CHILDHOOD,
YET DESPERATELY WANTING TO STAY

I WISH THEY COULD REMEMBER,
HOW TOUGH OUR LIVES CAN BE,
THE PROMISES THAT ARE BROKEN,
THE VIOLENCE THAT WE SEE

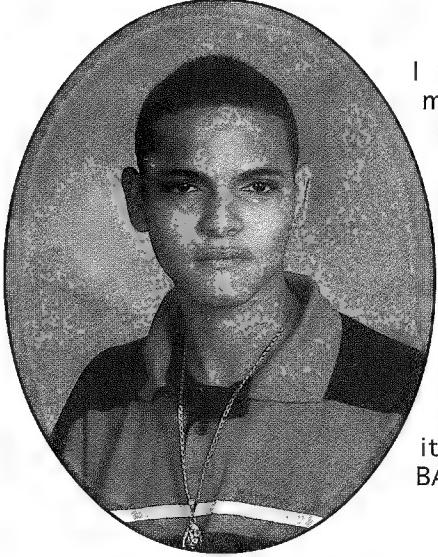

YET STILL WE VENTURE ONWARD,
UNSURE OF WHERE THE ROAD MAY LEAD,
HOPING THEY WILL TAKE NOTICE,
HOPING THEY'LL TAKE HEED,
OF THE CHANGES THAT WE'VE MADE,
OF THE POWER THAT WE HOLD,
OF THE WISDOM WE HAVE HIDDEN,
OF THE STORIES YET UNTOLD

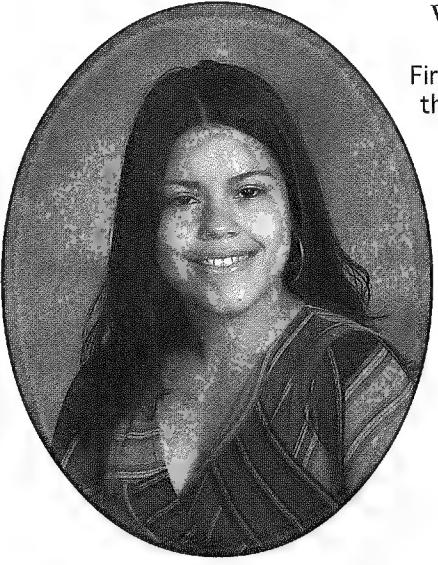

I HOPE THE WORLD WILL NOTICE,
WHAT SOME HAVE ALREADY SEEN,
TEENAGERS ARE AMAZING PEOPLE,
STRIVING TO FOLLOW THEIR DREAMS

DENISE & MARIBEL'S PAGE

Class of 2004!

Katiria Bolorin, born in Hartford, CT on June 21, 1985. At the age of 14 she developed an interest in music and dancing, and continued to practice until she was able to create her own moves and routines. As time went on and Katiria improved, she decided to show the world what she had to offer. It was then that she decided to register in Guakia ART School. While at Guakia, the instructors observed her and noticed her special way of dancing and aligning her body as she swiftly moved through the dance floor. Katiria was approached by her personal instructor and asked to participate in the Miss San Juan Pageant 2000. She accepted the offer and began to practice for the event. On the night of the event Katiria became nervous and anxious, she had never performed in public before, and on this night everyone was going to see her for the first time. At the end of the event, Katiria walked away with the title of First Princess, and a first place trophy. In 2001 Katiria registered at Fred Astaire Dance Studio, where she was introduced to higher levels of dancing along with the opportunity to compete at the national level. In 2002, she participated in the National Fred Astaire Competition and won first place in the categories of Salsa, Rumba, Mambo, and the Cha-cha-cha. Her passion has taken her into discovering the magical mystery of belly dancing. During the past 1 1/2 years she has mastered this dance and has performed at many city functions. We all know she has a promising future ahead of her and we wish her the best!

S P I R I T got

All Hallow's Eve, Valpurgestnacht, Halloween

Halloween has old origins from many different countries. Today it is seen by many as a day to be free to dress in silly or weird costumes, gather free candy, and generally have a good time acting and looking like we normally don't. You may have been wondering... (1) What were the first Jack O'Lanterns made from? (2) Why did the spirits supposedly play tricks on people on Halloween? (3) What day has the most sightings of ex-presidents, movie stars and monsters? (4) Who invented the Jack O' Lantern made from a pumpkin? (5) What does the color orange stand for?

- (1) Turnips
- (2) The spirits were jealous of the living, because life is a precious gift.
- (3) October 31st!
- (4) Irish immigrants who came to America.

Give Blood.

You Saved A Life!

Blood Drive

Save the life of a child, a mother. Save the life of a sister or brother. There is nothing more noble than saving a life.

We're not scared. Really... we're not!

SENIOR SUPERLATIVES

Who is the most popular? Who worked the hardest? Who made us laugh? Who is the most romantic? Well, the choices were many, but you narrowed it down to a handful of "class standouts". Here for your viewing pleasure are "the most of the most". If you don't see yourself in here, it isn't because you aren't special, it is just because we only had so much room! And besides, you have your whole future to make your mark on the world, and become special at whatever it is you do so well!

Friends make a long trip easier. Best friends stick together even when the road gets bumpy. And what is consideration? It is thinking of the feelings of others...and actually doing something to help. What about humor? Class clowns may upset some teachers, but they add a laugh or two, sometimes when it is really needed. And those outgoing types? They are often the ones to get a conversation going.... great skills to get a class, a meeting or a party started. What does an athlete bring to a school? A sense of accomplishment, and the message that you should never give up.. . . always try to do better. A message to live by!

Bulkeley Cross-Country

Cross-County: A physical challenge and a mental challenge combined. There is no short rest between plays, no time-outs, no lounging in the outfield, no huddles to recharge. Practice is running. Competing is running. Running till your heart is pounding...wondering if it is going to burst. Some call it a solitary sport, not a team sport. You run both for yourself and the team. You are the team.

The Bulkeley Cross-Country Team:

Arion Bakrina; Albert Behar; Carlos Caez; Fred Carvalho; Luis Delgado; Joshua Jarvis; Rosaida Jiminian; Jonathan Lopez; Chelsea Oprysko; Bayron Rodriguez; Rafael Rosales; Orlando Tirado. *How do you run away from a bear? # BHS Softball

There is nothing 'soft' about the way the Bulkeley softball team plays softball! It is almost a full contact sport. After the game, the uniforms show the color of the field, the bruises appear, and the players move slower than when they arrived for the game. Some say women have a higher pain threshold than men do, and that is why women play softball! Below we show you proof of the Bulldogs' abilities and determination.

The dash to 3rd...

3rd baseman wasn't ready....

safe, and then helped her up.
